

WINE ENTHUSIAST

MAGAZINE

DECEMBER 2010

A REAL SUCCESS FOR CHAMPAGNE LALLIER

LALLIER Grande Réserve Grand Cru - 92 Points

With a fine sense of maturity, this is rich, toasty, full-bodied and concentrated. It is a Champagne with weight, showing pink grapefruit, melon and green plum flavors inside an intense texture. At the end, the acidity combines with a fine toasty flourish. R.V. Editor's Choice

LALLIER Blanc de Blancs Grand Cru - 90 Points

Beautifully perfumed Champagne, creamy and mineral at the same time. It has the freshest green apple character to go with a delicious rich, full flavor, grapefruit juice and a tight texture. R.V.

LALLIER Millésime 2002 Grand Cru - 92 Points

A rich wine, with delicious cream and apple flavors, lifted by fine acidity. It is opulent, packed with apricot and light honey character encased in a dry, mineral framework. R.V.

LALLIER Zéro Dosage Grand Cru - 90 Points

Very dry, packed with grapefruit juice flavors. At the same time, this is a tense, serious wine, with a great mineral presence, touch of toast and the potential to age in the bottle. It is best with food. R.V.